November 2, 1922. Continuing on the above matter, as per instructions Operative applied at the International Motor Co., New Brunswick, N.J., at 8.30 a.m. for a position.

Upon entering the offices of the above mentioned concern, Operative met a Mr. Swivel, and advised him that Mr. Matthews had stated that Operative might be able to get a position with that concern.

Mr. Swivel then questioned Operative as to which Matthews he meant, stating that there were two Mr. Matthews'. Operative then informed Mr. Swivel that the Matthews he referred to had told Operative that he was a foreman at the plant.

Mr. Swivel then advised Operative that there was no opening at the plant at the present time, but gave Operative an application to fill out, and told Operative to come back Tuesday morning at 9 a.m.

Upon conclusion of the above interview with Mr. Swivel, Operative proceeded to the railroad station, and while there entered in conversation with Gary Kenny who runs the news-stand.

At about 11.30 a.m. Gary Kenny and Operative proceeded to the Phillips Farm.

While at the Phillips Farm, Operative noticed a car drive up bearing New York License, and Operative was advised by Gary Kenny that it was the car of Mrs. Hall's lawyer and detective.

Gary Kenny and Operative then entered Mr. Kenny's car and proceeded up the lane past Mrs. Gibson's place, and then to Lincoln Highway, and back to the railroad station.

While in the company of Gary Kenny, he informed Operative that he (Kenny) knew everyone connected with the Case, having been in the paper business at the station for a number of years. He advised Operative that on the
